

Sacrifice for Freedom: World War II in the Pacific Student & Teacher Institute

June 24 - July 1, 2020

Sacrifice for Freedom®: World War II in the Pacific Student & Teacher Institute provides an opportunity for 16 student/teacher teams to study World War II in the Pacific in Honolulu, Hawai'i in summer 2020.

Additional information is available at <https://www.nhd.org/sacrifice-for-freedom-pacific>.

All questions or concerns regarding the program can be directed to Lynne M. O'Hara, Director of Programs (phone: 484-919-2595; email: at lynne@nhd.org) or to Ashley Dabbraccio, Program Assistant, (phone: 301-405-0535; email: ashley@nhd.org).

Please complete the parental consent form below for your child/legal dependent. The application is not considered complete without this form.

---

I hereby give my consent to my child/legal dependent, _____, to apply for National History Day's Sacrifice for Freedom®: World War II in the Pacific Student & Teacher Institute with his or her teacher, _____.

I acknowledge that, if accepted, my child/legal dependent will need to be available for travel from June 24 - July 1, 2020 (mainland teams arrive home on July 2) as well as complete all related academic materials.

---

Name of Parent/Legal Guardian (print)

---

Date

---

Name of Parent/Legal Guardian (signature)

---

Date